

At 18 years old Nasser Baker (aka) Dj Severe is already considered a House Music veteran. By the age of 16 Nasser had already been booked at the legendary Cielo in New York on multiple occasions, in addition to playing alongside House Music Veterans like Danny Krivit ,Tony Humphries and Mr V just to name a few. Nasser's ability to incorporate different styles of House Music in his sets not only shows his versatility, but his overall knowledge of music as a whole. In 2010 House Legend Dennis Ferrer invited Nasser to DJ for his label party (Objektivty) during Winter Music Conference in Miami and he proceeded to rock the packed crowd into frenzy. In addition to spinning at New York's hottest spots, Nasser has started his own label "Main Track" to showcase his productions. You can catch the phenom as he helms his first residency at "La Vie Est Belle" (Life Is Beautiful) Sundays at the downtown hot spot La Vie beginning January 29th 2012...

<http://newyork.timeout.com/music-nightlife/the-volume-blog/102524/cielo-reopens-live-photos-of-danceherenow>

<http://newyork.timeout.com/things-to-do/own-this-city-blog/92958/whats-going-on-a-teenage-dj-a-middle-aged-girl-and-an-irrevere>